Is Jesus Asking the Same of Us?

This Week's Readings at Mass

- ▶ Wisdom 7:7-11 - Solomon and the riches of wisdom
- ▶ Hebrews 4:12-13 - God's living word
- ▶ Mark 10:17-30 - The danger of riches—Jesus and the rich man

This story of the rich man who goes away sad because “he had many possessions” is one of the most provocative stories in the Gospels. In the last 2,000 years, countless people have given away their riches (if not all of their possessions) to serve Jesus more freely. Famous people like Saint Francis, Saint Mother Teresa, Dorothy Day, and Oscar Romero chose to live with little to follow their callings. So have countless other “unknowns,” such as Jesuit Volunteers, international aid workers, Catholic sisters, missionaries, etc. During that same period, millions of others have heard or read this passage and felt guilty because they haven't sold everything and given to the poor. Many wonder if Jesus is asking the same thing of them that he asked of the rich man. Hopefully, the story prompts some honest soul-searching, whether or not readers sell their cars and clean out their closets.

Before Jesus' statement that the rich man should sell what he owns come a few other points we shouldn't overlook. First, Jesus reminds the man to obey the commandments. Do we follow these ourselves? If not, maybe this is the place for us to start, before we put our house on the market. Second, Jesus looked at the rich man with love even before asking him to give up his possessions. (No one can ever read this passage and say that Jesus disapproves of rich people.) Can we believe Jesus looks upon us like this first, before asking us to give anything up to follow him?

Questions of the Week

- 1 Have you ever given up something that was dear to you (possessions, a chance to make more money, a relationship, social status, etc.) which then enabled you to follow God's call more freely? Please share.
- 2 What in your life now is “holding you hostage” so that you are not free to follow an invitation from God?

What might Jesus be inviting you to let go of or say goodbye to so you can move forward with more freedom?
