PASTORAL NOTE

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family, interestingly, the Gospel chosen for this feast day does not include a story of togetherness and harmony in the household, but of separation and anxiety. Then again, it is in those moments when the opportunities for reliance on God and the striving for holiness are most visible and appreciated.

We know the story: Jesus remains in the temple when everyone else leaves Jerusalem turn home, and after three days of searching for him, Mary and Joseph find him sitting, listening to the teaches and asking him questions. They have been anxious and concerned.

Jesus, though he was God, obeyed Mary and Joseph in the most perfect and pure sense. When reflecting on the evangelical counsels, obedience is one of the vows that religious profess. Humble obedience allows us to more clearly see the Father’s plan for our lives. Jesus models obedience in the home of Mary and Joseph. He models what it looks like to honor father and mother and yet, at the same time, he completes the Father’s will.

Mary kept these things in her heart and pondered them. May we, too, find our hearts constantly pondering the mystery of Christ and his great love for us.

I would like to thank you for all Christmas wishes, prayers and gifts.

In Christ,

Father Joseph Khanh D. Nguyen

Pastor
